

CELEBRATION TOLL IS FOUR DEAD AND MANY MORE HURT

Mother and Daughter Killed in Yonkers and Sailor Dies in Another Accident.

Peace celebrations in New York and vicinity last night were marked by the death of four persons killed in auto accidents in Yonkers and the injury of several others in various parts of the city.

Mrs. Louise Thompson and her daughter Margaret, ten years old of No. 24 Waller Avenue, Ossining, were killed when they were struck by an automobile while crossing Broadway, Yonkers, and buried under a passing trolley car.

Mrs. Thompson was the widow of Howard N. Thompson, at one time Associated Press correspondent in Paris, who died in 1912. She was a violinist of note and local repute, having studied in this country, France, Italy and Germany.

During the celebration in Lodi, N. J., last night Luisa Moroschauer, fifteen, was pushed by the crowd under an automobile and died on way to Hackensack Hospital.

Harold J. Wainfield, a sailor, No. 18 Riverview Place, Yonkers, was killed in the same suburb when an auto in which he was riding overturned and crushed him.

The machine which killed Mrs. Thompson and her daughter was driven by Ralph Prier, No. 4913 Barnes Avenue, Kingsbridge. In the machine with him were Michael Gurak, No. 50 East 229th Street; Steven Wazanski, No. 513 East 226th Street; Joseph Blohazak, No. 950 East 25th Street, and Ignatz Perkosi, N. 970 East 229th Street.

Perkosi was seriously injured when the auto, after striking Mrs. Thompson and her daughter, collided with the trolley that ran over the victims. Together occupants of the machine were held pending the inquest.

MAGISTRATE CORNELL DIES.

Was First Judge of Domestic Relations Court.

Robert Clifford Cornell, City Magistrate since 1893, died last night at his home in Passaic, N. J., after a week's illness. He was sixty-five years old.

Magistrate Cornell was graduated from Columbia University in 1874, and from the law school in 1876. In 1910 he was appointed first Judge of the new Court of Domestic Relations. He was a member of the University and Century Clubs. His wife, who was Miss Malvina H. Lamson, survives him.

Honesty made Rival Shoe Stores what they are today

SIMPLE honesty made Rival stores. Today, they are among the biggest, busiest shoe stores in this country.

Our men are experienced shoe fitters. They have made shoe service a fine art.

But they are even more expert in square dealing.

We carefully instruct them never to urge a customer to buy. We insist that no customer leave a Rival store with an incorrectly fitted shoe. This eliminates 99% of all regrets after purchase. It makes our customers permanent patrons.

In a nutshell our policy is: "The Customer Must Be Pleased."
